Kodapak for Wrapping Stamps

PERHAPS one question that has attracted as much interest in the Philatelic Press as any other in the past couple years has been with reference to the use of Kodapak, Cellophane or similar transparent sheets for wrapping stamps or for making small envelopes in which to enclose stamps.

It must be first recognized that both Kodapak and Cellophane are very similar and much alike in substance. Kodapak is made by the Eastman Kodak Company and Cellophane by the E. I. DuPont de Nemours Company.

Readers of this paper have noted that the publishers, LINPRINT INC., have advertised and offered Kodapak to stamp collectors for wrapping stamps and for interleaving album pages.

Therefore the object of this article is to give some information on Kodapak that may allay the fears of collectors who have wanted to know if it would be injurious to stamps.

Many visitors to our office in Columbus have inquired regarding Kodapak and it occurred to us that it would be well to have a disinterested party make inquiries direct from the Eastman Kodak Company and to print the result of these inquiries for the information of all collectors.

Some weeks ago, Mr. W. Scott Eyman of Cleveland, Ohio stopped at our office and questioned us about Kodapak. We gave Mr. Eyman our assurance that we had every reason to believe it a safe paper to use with stamps. We however suggested to Mr. Eyman that we would be very glad to have him write a letter of inquiry to the Eastman Company and get the information first hand.

Mr. Eyman did this and we are glad to be able to print herewith the letter from Mr. Eyman to ourselves as well as the information and the statement of the Eastman Company in regard to the use of Kodapak for the protection of stamps.

LETTER FROM MR. EYMAN

October 2, 1935

Linn's Weekly Stamp News
20 East Chestnut St.,
Columbus, Ohio.

Gentlemen:

You may recall I stopped in to see you several weeks ago in regard to the use of Kodapak for the protection of postage stamps.

I wrote to the Eastman Kodak Company asking about this product for such use, whether the chemicals in the composition of Kodapak would have any effect on the ink, paper, gum, etc., also if the amount of expansion and contraction would have an abrasive effect. The questions went more into detail.

I received their reply stating the Eastman Kodak Company were "selling quite a little Kodapak to individuals and to philatelic supply houses, and the reports we receive indicate that Kodapak is very suitable for protecting all kinds of rare stamps."

Enclosed is a copy of an article I received that had been prepared on the use of Kodapak for stamps. The Eastman Kodak Company have no objection to your use of this article.

The comments I have read or heard expressed have been about equally divided for and against the use of Kodapak. I am now satisfied that Kodapak is all right to use for the protection of stamps. This article also confirms your comments on the subject.

Am glad I stopped in to see you and appreciate the courtesy shown me. Also glad to pass the following on that one of your subscribers here in Cleveland told me he "got more news and information from your Weekly than from any other stamp paper"

Yours sincerely,

W. Scott Eyman

STATEMENT BY EASTMAN

KODAK COMPANY

The particular qualities of Kodapak and Eastman Acetate Sheeting have attracted wide interest among philatelists for the protection of valuable stamps.

Kodapak is Eastman Kodak Company's trade name for their thin transparent cellulose acetate sheeting which is used for general wrapping purposes. There are three thicknesses of Kodapak: .00088", .0012" and .0015" which are designated by No. 88, No. 120 and No. 150 respectively. The No. 88 weight is also made moisture-vaporproof for special uses such as wrapping products to protect them against taking up or loss of moisture.

Eastman Acetate Sheeting is the same material as Kodapak made heavier and is available in various thicknesses from .003" to .020".

The cellulose acetate used in Kodapak manufacture is made from the highest grade cotton linters which are treated to produce cellulose acetate. Suitable solvents are then added to form a clear solution which, when dried under scientifically controlled conditions, forms the pure, transparent sheet—Kodapak.

Ever since the beginning of film photography, the Eastman Kodak Company has been a leader in the field of cellulose chemistry. The commercial production of Eastman Cellulose Acetate was begun many years ago. And during the intervening years, not only has an extremely wide and varied knowledge of cellulose acetate been acquired, but from a practical angle, the utilization of this product in the manufacture of photographic film has necessitated the utmost in uniformity, purity, and clarity.

Some points of superiority which make Kodapak suitable for the protection of stamps are:

1. Kodapak is crystal-clear; it does not discolor with age. White areas, printing, and colors show through it with undimmed sharpness.

2. Kodapak is waterproof; it does not swell when wet, or crack even when subjected to exceptionally dry atmosphere.

3. Kodapak is exceptionally pliable. It does not become brittle even at low temperatures.

4. Kodapak folds without wrinkling. There is slight shrinkage in both directions which assures smooth wrappings. Sufficient stretch prevents breaking open of packages.

5. Kodapak seals instantaneously and the welded seal is the strongest part of the wrapping.

The question is often asked if Kodapak contains any material which will be harmful to stamps. A number of tests have been made which indicate that Kodapak is neutral to any fading action to colors or to any change in the paper or gums of postage stamps.

A certain amount of shrinkage takes place in all weights of Kodapak and Eastman Acetate Sheeting, as is also the case with other transparent papers. This shrinkage varies according to temperature conditions, and with non-rigid articles there may be some distortion as time goes on. However, Kodapak, because it is made from cellulose acetate, has a comparatively low degree of shrinkage arising from changes in temperature or humidity. The maximum shrinkage of Kodapak can be safely estimated at not more than 3% in either direction.

Since Kodapak is waterproof, ordinary water soluble glues cannot be used to seal it to itself or to paper. Special adhesives have been developed and are sold by adhesive companies and Kodapak distributors.

United States Review

Thomas F. Whitbread, West Cummington, Mass.

Inquiries regarding U. S. Issues will be answered in this column.
If a personal reply is desired, enclose stamped addressed envelope.

Unfortunately reports have begun to come in that postoffices which we listed as having certain stamps available either were sold out or had such small supplies that they could not cope with the demand. Therefore, they have been annoyed by the flood of orders which must be returned. The only solution that has been offered to check this is to discontinue our listings. While we regret this it is the only thing to do.

The question has been raised by J. Gilbert Wetherill as to why Clay and Clinton portraits are used on U. S. Tobacco revenue stamps. We have looked around for an answer to this question for some time without success. We would, therefore, appreciate it if any of our readers can provide an answer.

If the new airmail service to Hawaii, Guam and the Philippines proves popular there is every possibility for the appearance of 50c and 75c airmail stamps to supplement the 25c to be issued. Probably three separate first days with the extra revenue to be had from each. It is easy to see that our P. M. G. is not softening with age.

A recent inquiry brings to light the fact that definite information regarding the exact date of issue of some comparatively recent Special Delivery stamps is not available. At the request of W. D. Armstrong we have been searching for the date of issue of catalogue numbers 1897, 8, 9 and 1900. To date we have been unable to do so. As this was the period of transition from watermarked to unwatermarked paper and from perforated 12 to 10 to 11, all of which varieties are not considered varieties by the Post Office Department, it appears that no definite dates of first printings were kept. Perhaps, however, some readers have access to information we have missed. If they will communicate it will be appreciated.

Remember—this column is to answer questions about U. S. stamps—please provide them.

Anderson's Fairy Tales on Stamps

The ugly duckling from the never-to-be-forgotten fairy tales of Hans Christian Anderson now appears upon a postage stamp of Denmark. The little mermaid from another of those quaint stories known to every child has a place of honor upon another value of the commemorative set that has been issued in remembrance of the day, 100 years ago, when Anderson published his first book.

Anderson, himself, is seen upon four values of the set which ought to become one of the most popular of present day issues.

RELIGION IN THE STAMPS

The Why and Where of Religious Stamps

Harry M. Savacool

CHAPTER II

RELIGIOUS stamps are not equally distributed over the map of the world. Some Christian countries have been very profuse in their issues of religious stamps while others have issued very few. It is not necessarily the most religious countries that issue the largest number of religious stamps. Other factors besides the piety of the population carry much weight in deciding this question. England in spite of her lack of religious stamps is certainly not less religious than Italy or Spain with their abundance of religious issues.

The circumstance that seems more than any other to favor the issuance of religious stamps is a population which is almost all of one creed which is in favor with the government. Italy is an example. Almost one hundred per cent Roman Catholic she is ruled by the Fascist government which has made a policy of conciliating the Catholic Church where it does not effect their cardinal principles. The result has been a steady stream of religious stamp issues. In 1923 came the beautiful Propagation of the Faith Issue bearing a fine picture of the Christ as a central figure in a group. In the short period of twelve years since we have had from Italy the St. Francis of Assisi Issue of 1926, the Monte Cassino Issue of 1929, the St. Anthony of Padua Issue of 1930, and the special postal Holy Year Issues of 1924 and 1933.

Portugal is another almost entirely Roman Catholic country. To Portugal belongs the honor of issuing the first set of stamps commemorating a saint. This set of four different designs was issued in 1895 in honor of St. Anthony of Padua.

Spain was until just recently ruled by sovereigns who were proud of their adherence to the Christian faith and of course the stamps issued from time to time gave full evidence of their religious interest. Some of the designs of the Columbus Issues of 1930 picture the devotions of the explorer and his companions. In 1928 a beautiful special postal bore the portraits of the Pope and the King of Spain.

Belgium has honored her Catholic faith by stamps commemorating St. Michael and St. Martin of Tours. She has also pictured her most beautiful cathedrals upon stamps and has given many special postal designs to the noted Orval Abbey. Her heroic Cardinal Mercier has been honored on a set of stamps.

Bulgaria, being almost unanimously of the Greek Orthodox faith has been liberal in picturing historic shrines of that faith upon her stamps.

As noted before these countries which have been so liberal with religious stamps are those with a population overwhelmingly of one faith and with rulers who give at least formal adherence to that faith. For some unaccountable reason religious sects are usually intolerant and resent any honor shown to leaders of another creed. Consequently religious stamp issues are scarce in countries of diversified faith. England, for example, has a strong representation of Jews, Catholics, Dissenters, and Anglicans. Any official honor, such as a stamp issue, shown to any one from one group would lead to protests from the others. A glance at the England pages in your catalog shows how this works out. The United States is in the same situation as England with the added fact that absolute impartiality as among religions is part of the basic law of the land. It is a wonder that the Valley Forge Issue ever came out and it did not escape severe criticism from the free thinking groups.

But there are countries with a nearly uniform faith which issue few if any religious stamps. The South American Republics are almost entirely Roman Catholic but the intelligensia of those countries in whose hands the government rests are in large majority free thinkers and non-believers. True Argentine, ruled almost entirely by non-religious leaders, recently issued two stamps in honor of the Eucharistic Conference but it is probable that political motives played a larger part than piety in their issue. France is another country where the rulers are rather non-religious than anti-religious and they are not likely to issue religious stamps for any purely religious reasons. Orthodox Catholic Russia and Roman Catholic Mexico have a population which is mostly devout but the dictating groups in both countries are bitterly opposed to religion and anxious to stamp it out. Of course they would not issue stamps showing any honor to religion. It is surprising that they have not, up to date, resorted to the postage stamp as a means of anti-religious propaganda.

There is no valid reason why any country with a majority of citizens of the Christian Faith should not on appropriate occasions recognize the Christian religion on its stamps. This would in no way violate the guarantees of religious freedom. It would, however, be a powerful influence for good by showing government respect for religion. Ignoring anything is equivalent to condemning it and for the government to ignore religion amounts to condemning it.

A great need of the Christian world is tolerance. The issuing of stamps honoring religious leaders and events of the different denominations would be a good lesson in tolerance. Such a tolerant spirit is not impossible. Czechoslovakia is a country with a large majority of its population of the Roman Catholic faith but she showed her tolerant spirit by issuing in 1920 two stamps (No. 74 and 75) honoring John Hus who was a rebel against Catholicism and in reality a Protestant. This should be a lesson in tolerance for some other countries.

The United States did well in issuing the Valley Forge stamp showing Washington at prayer, the Maryland stamp showing the ships bearing Lord Baltimore's colonists to the new world, and the Huguenot-Walloon issue. There are other events and personages that might well be honored in the same manner. Among others there are the first sacrament to Englishmen in America, the Episcopal Cathedral at Washington, Philips Brooks, Francis Asbury, Hingham Meeting House—the oldest New England Meeting House now standing, Roger Williams, John Carroll and many other appropriate characters and events.

New Scott Specialized Bigger and Better

The 1936 edition of the specialized United States Stamp Catalogue comes in a brown cover to match the Standard Postage Stamp Catalogue. The new edition is both bigger and better than previous editions because of the addition to the catalogue of some new groups which have not previously been listed.

Among the new listings are the Consular Fee and Custom Fees stamps of the New York Customs House.

It is easy to remember a few years ago when large quantities of these latter stamps were quite plentiful in bundles of 100 and cheap approvals usually showed many of them that were doubtless not saved by most collectors who will now wish that they had retained the copies that passed thru their hands for some of them bear worthwhile prices.

To our mind it is little less than amazing, the way prices have advanced on some of the 20th century issues. This is accounted for of course by the fact that such a large proportion of the collectors who are collecting U. S. have but a meagre showing in 19th century, having stuck to the 20th because of the lower prices and possibility of completion. It therefore is reasonable to believe that we will have to find some other activity for the class of collector who avoids the higher priced varieties.

Collectors will approve of the listing of all varieties of the late Farley imperforates, singles, pairs, line pairs, arrows, center blocks etc. for no recent issue has attracted the interest in these varieties that has been brought about by the Farleys and collectors like to see prices on their favorite pieces.

We believe however that there would have been as much justice in listing the Imperfs in pairs and blocks with line between as there is in listing some of the other pieces that have been in the market.

There is much new and interesting material in this new catalogue and the numerous price advances make it necessary that the collector have the latest edition for his own protection.

The catalogue retails at $2.50, weight 2 lbs., postage extra and may be had of the publishers The Scott Stamp & Coin Co., 1 West 47th St., New York, N. Y., or from your dealer.

Naval Cover and Cachet News

Robert L. Manley, P. O. Box 36, Columbus, Ohio

News contributions and inquiries for this department should be addressed as above.

CHRISTMAS CACHET

Leslie Paulson—25 Highland Terrace, Middletown, Conn. will sponsor a cachet for Christmas from three ships and possibly from five. Better send Leslie five covers as soon as you get around to it although the dead line is December 10th. Of course you should use commemoratives on packages to the sponsor and include 1c per cover forwarding postage.

Mr. Paulson is now sponsoring a "Ship Birthday" Series. Send him 10 covers together with the usual courtesies if you want these also.

CACHET SERIES

Francis L. Browne, 1232 Bonaparte Ave., Baltimore, Md., will mail a series of covers from the ships of our Navy, one from each vessel, each to be cacheted with a different design. All covers will be mailed, when possible, on the date of some important event in American history.

Send no covers to the sponsor but instead send four cents for each one; this charge to cover cost of high grade envelope, printing, first class postage and forwarding. All covers will be addressed with a typewriter.

Persons desiring these must subscribe to the entire series. This is a reasonable request as the sponsor will be involved in a considerable expense.

One dollar should be sent immediately to the cachet director and the other payment made at the rate of one dollar per month until the series is complete. Each dollar will, of course, pay for 25 covers.

Mr. Browne must have at least 150 subscribers to make this an even break so lets get behind him and put this across. A number of you collectors don't have a cancel from each ship and this will be an opportunity to get a complete set. I have known Mr. Browne for quite some time and I know every subscriber will be satisfied. Of course Mr. Browne should not be held responsible for loss or damage of covers, after they have left his hands. Should he not receive 150 subscribers all money will be returned. If interested, write Mr. Browne at once as the sooner the subscription is received the series will start.

TWIN LAUNCHING CACHET

Mr. F. E. Barth, 4829 37th Ave. N. E., Seattle, Wash., will sponsor a cachet for the twin launching of the Cushing and Perkins at Bremerton Navy Yard, December 31, 1935. Send your covers early so as to permit the sponsor proper time to prepare this cachet. Send one cent per cover forwarding postage and not over ten covers to the individual. Use commemoratives on your packages.

CHISELERS

Several cachet notices received lately have not been printed in this column because it very plainly indicated that they were being sponsored as a money making proposition and not sponsored to promote the good will of the hobby. We are always willing to supply information to our readers of noteworthy events sponsored without profit. I believe a cachet sponsor is within his rights to charge a penny per cover for the covers handled and this amount in a small way reimburses him for the costs of cuts, printing and forwarding these covers to the ship for cancellation. However, charges more than 1c per cover certainly are not orthodox and should not be encouraged by the collector of Naval covers.

I believe also that the collector in sending for cachet events should also cooperate with the sponsor as far as possible by using standard 6 3/4 size envelopes addressed in the lower righthand corner in order to permit ample room for printing the cachet. Little courtesies such as using commemoratives on wrapper or enclosing a cover for the sponsor are always appreciated and the "Golden Rule" should be followed in this respect whenever possible, remembering that the cachet director in sponsoring the cachet as a courtesy to you and not as a means of profit.

Straight From the Shoulder

A Few Minutes with the Editor

OUR THANKS TO YOU

Our thanks and appreciation are due the many advertising patrons who contributed the excellent amount of advertising copy which we printed in the last issue of this paper. We feel that we have made an excellent start on our eighth year and we regret that a few who wanted space in the last issue were a bit late with copy and their advertising has been held over to this number.

The stamp season is now at its height and wise dealers will be persistent in their search for new business.

It appears that there is to be a constant issuing of special new stamps by the Postoffice Department as note the new 25c airmail stamp which came as a surprise to many collectors.

This activity on the part of the Postoffice Department will keep collectors pepped up throughout the winter and goes far toward making for greater interest in the hobby.

One of our advertising patrons writes—"Just sold a complete sheet of Pony Express stamps to Arthur Lichtenstein — my first millionaire customer. We ought to have a drink on that so you get a highball at that end and I'll guzzle one back here."

NEW COLLEGE YELL WANTED

Now that Harvard has taken up Philately we certainly must have a college yell that will uphold both the traditions of Harvard and of Philately. The editor feels certain that there must be some expert yell composers among the 15,000 readers of this publication and invites those who feel that they can qualify as expert yell composers to submit their compositions in order that the Philatelic Class of 1936 at Harvard may have a regular college yell when they graduate and when they attend mounting contests and other Philatelic events.

In order that those who do not know what a college yell looks like, we have composed one that may be taken as a sample, perhaps the class of 1936 will adopt this one, who knows?

INFORMATION FOR READERS

Subscribers can frequently find answers for many questions which they write about if they will but look this paper over carefully. On the inside of the front cover, lower left corner of the page is an announcement by the publisher which gives all facts and figures regarding subscription and advertising prices together with other information.

Throughout the publication, the various departments are usually handled by Editors who understand and know of the subjects about which they write. In many cases, the Editor here in Columbus, may be unfamiliar with some of these subjects, at least not so capable of giving the kind of

National Young People's Stamp Exhibition

The Lincoln Stamp Club of Chicago which has sponsored an Annual Stamp Show in Chicago, will this year make the event a National one and invite young collectors from all over the United States to enter into the exhibit and compete for prizes.

This exhibition is planned for February 8th to 12th and due announcement of the plans will be made later. Those who would wish to compete can register their names with the Chairman, Leonard J. Wolff, c/o Lincoln Stamp Club, 3333 N. Marshall Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The Club has just changed its meeting dates to the second and fourth Wednesday in each month. A new plan to bring out the members has been adopted. At each meeting a drawing is held, a dollars worth of stamps is given the winner, the only stipulation being, that the winner must be present at the meeting. If the winner is not present the prize is carried over to next meeting when $2.00 worth of stamps are given and so on until a winner is present.

We Lose A Subscriber

If Westbrook Pegler reads this, stamp collectors will be in for a new lot of panning in his excellent column.

The following is a letter from the wife of one of our readers. It is too unusual to file away and forget, so we pass it on to you with the hope that it may serve as a warning against too deep an interest in your hobby. Don't be that way.

"Because of my husband's mental condition as regards stamp collecting (which also affects his efficiency as a workman) the Dr. has suggested that everything pertaining to stamps be kept from him.

May I ask that you cooperate with me and discontinue his subscription. This is a serious matter for his whole family and we will be very grateful to you for your cooperation. He has already served one prison sentence as an indirect result of his mania and we are anxious to keep him from more. Should he make inquiries would advise that you do not answer. Will take full responsibility."

A Tribute to Stevenson

After all these years Uncle Sam's chunk of Samoa is to be recognized in an odd sort of way. The back-handed trick is being accomplished by a new set of postage stamps which New Zealand has issued for "Western Samoa". Heretofore stamps for that section of the islands have been inscribed "Samoa" and that was a bit misleading for it indicated that the stamps were valid throughout the country. The United States owns a part of Samoa and, of course, United States postage only is recognized there.

The new set of stamps, mostly finely executed bicolors, is of secondary interest because of the tribute paid Robert Louis Stevenson. His residence and his tomb are designs for two of the values. Stevenson spent the latter years of his life in Samoa which has a climate that enabled the famous although chronically ill writer to rest in comfort.

Harvard to Teach Philately

Stamp Collecting has graduated from the Grade Schools and High Schools and now enters College. The Massachusetts University Extension now announces a new course in Stamp Classification at Sever Hall, Harvard University, Cambridge.

Well known men in the stamp world are assigned dates beginning with November 14th when Frank L. Coes, Secretary of the Society of Philatelic Americans will be the first speaker. Other dates carry the course up through January and doubtless the lectures will be well attended by collectors in Boston and vicinity.

This will mark a new chapter in Philately and with a string of college graduate philatelists, carrying an imposing "P. D." behind their names.

Poster Stamps for 1936 International Exhibition

The accompanying illustration shows the design of the steel engraved poster stamps which were prepared by the American Bank Note Company for the International Philatelic Exhibition to be held in New York from May 9th to 14th, inclusive, 1936.

These stamps come in four colors, red, blue, green and brown, and make a very artistic appearance. They can be secured from Mr. A. F. Lichtenstein, Box 25, Sta. C, N. Y. C. at 10c per set.

The second edition of the prospectus for the International Show has now been distributed and any reader who is interested can secure a copy from Admiral Frederic R. Harris, 27 William St., New York, N. Y.

This second prospectus contains many changes and improvements over the first prospectus that was released, based upon the suggestions received from collectors throughout the world.

Stamp Club Directory

For the information of our readers, who desire to meet with collectors in other cities, in their travels over the country, we list below, each week, a certain number of regularly organized Stamp Clubs, throughout the country. Questionnaires have been mailed to all Secretaries of Clubs on our mailing list. If your Club's name is not among those listed, a card to us giving the Secretary's name and address, will enable us to send a questionnaire to that party, so that your Club may be listed.

(*) It sometimes happens that the Secretary is not so situated as to be able to meet visitors who desire to meet the local collectors or attend the local club meeting. If this is the case, a member whom visiting collectors may contact is so noted at the foot of the Club data. If the Secretary's name is marked thus (*), it indicates that he is the Contact Man.

When sufficient Club names are received a vest-pocket size booklet will be published by LINPRINT, to be sold at a very nominal cost. Thus you will be able to carry this information with you at all times on your travels, or short week-end jaunts to other cities.

SOMETHING NEW

A new record has been set by the Sindicato Condor, Ltd. airways when the seaplane leaving Buenos Aires on Wednesday, August 29, arrived in Stuttgart on September 1 at 11:17 o'clock, a full day ahead of scheduled time . . . $10,000,000 has been appropriated by the Chamber of Deputies for the construction of an airport at Buenos Aires . . . In Australia along the inter-capital air route, 60 airports have been approved . . . To Europe in 40 hours is the dream of Jean Mermoz and plans call for this schedule on the Air France's program for the coming year . . . A concession of the Transequator, Inc., for preliminary studies as to a new mid-continent air route from Buenos Aires to New York City has been cancelled because surveys were not being made . . . The above notes are from clippings received from H. G. Spanton of Buenos Aires, Argentine.

Sixty-six covers bearing a three color cachet were mailed for Byrd's visit to Lincoln, Neb. on Oct. 24. News was received too late that he would be at Omaha on the following date and four late covers were mailed from Omaha on the 25th. About half of the covers bore three cents postage in spite of the fact that same was listed as an air mail event.

Plans are being made to allot $50,000,000 to improve 1000 airports along main airways. Watch for news on this.

November 15 is the date for the dedication of Elliott Emergency Landing Field at Coudersport, Pa. Vernon E. Bagwell is holding covers for this event as well as a possible dedication at Erie, Pa. Address at the above field.

Covers mailed: Vancouver, B. C. southbound—8000; Seattle, Wash. northbound—5500. Allentown, Pa. westbound—3184 covers; eastbound—6564. Plane used on westbound trip was the Boeing used by Turner and Pangborn in the London-Melbourne air race and is so marked.

Philatelic World's Fair

A novel stamp exhibition held along new plans was recently held at Ravenna, Ohio by the Ravenna Stamp Club and the High School Stamp Club of that City.

The idea is one that could well be adopted as a basis for an exhibition by any other stamp club and should create a great deal of interest if carried out in a proper manner.

The exhibition was held in the gymnasium of the High School, thus providing a large room with good light and an entry to the building directly from the street. More than 500 visited the exhibition during the evening, the majority being adults.

The exhibition was planned on the nature of a World's Fair. One or more frames was devoted to a subject and about every conceivable subject that can be found represented by postage stamps was covered. There was a frame on Transportation, Exploration, Science, Music, Architecture, Horticulture, Aviation, and many other subjects.

This meeting was on the regular meeting night of the Rubber City Stamp Club of Akron and the Akron meeting was adjourned in favor of the Ravenna exhibition.

AKRON DOUBLE

Several last minute items last week crowded out my comment on this stamp. One of the most prominent collectors of the country claims to have the above stamp, but on which denomination it is I can't recall. Any way it doesn't matter as the stamp is not recognized by the makers of the catalog. It is the firm belief of many that if the stamp really does exist it is not a true double but is a transfer from another sheet. Two ways come to mind that this could have happened. One is that the heating element or apparatus on the press was not functioning properly leaving the overprint wet. This then transferred to the back of the sheet above, then if same sheet became shifted in handling and then a little weight applied it would naturally print right back on the sheet from which it obtained its back imprint. Offsetting the printers would call it. The other way I think of is that perhaps the press was started with no paper in it or the paper broke while running thus causing a wet impression on the roll underneath the one that carries the die. This of course not being cleaned off properly would make an impression on the back of the sheet and could then be transferred to the face of the sheet under it when stacked. Would like to hear from the buro print sharks as to the possibility of these things happening.

OTHER BURO NOTES

John Furneau of Boise, Idaho reports the 1c ord. (71) from the home town. A report at hand that Reading 70 is out. The 1/2c you know. It has been my good fortune to view one of the Brooklyn errors. An H instead of an N in N. Y. is what the error is supposed to be. After examining it closely I still don't know what I have seen. In fact I am only believing half what I see any more. I still will have to see a better copy than the one shown me to be convinced.—Dr. Mitchell's releases will be printed in this column from time to time.

AUCTIONS

Three lists since the first of the week. The Precancel Clearing House of Newark, N. J. has an auction for Nov. 16th.—L. L. Breithaupt of Dubuque, Ia. for Nov. 19th and The New England Precancel Auctions of West Hartford, Conn. are holding their first auction Nov. 8th. Complete addresses given to those requesting same.

HANDSTAMPS COMING BACK

Doris C. Kiley in the Kaw Chief Journal speaks of a new handstamp type appearing from Proctor, Vt. in a type resembling U-47. This ties right up with the report I made on the Bristol, Vt. triple line type as it was a rubber handstamp and a new type. So I think that we may expect from now on some of the rubber handstamps to reappear. The metal handstamps or electros never were very satisfactory altho they were built for wear. I have always conceded the point in favor of the clerks that the wrong kind of ink was supplied them in most cases and good results could not hope to be obtained with the grade of ink they had to work with. If we must have handstamp precancels I for one vote for the rubber handstamp varieties.

GENERAL NOTES

A 1/2c p. 11 from New York, N. Y. in type 8 inverted is an unlisted item. Palsy Edwin Christ of St. Louis sends me a card with a lot of nice precancels on it among which is a 15c Special Delivery from Hagerstown, Md. in U-121. W. H. Stokes of Ft. Wayne tells me has a Boulder Dam stamp precancelled Wabash, Ind. The type probably is U-122 as I think that is the type they use there.

Death of Irwin Hensolt

Irwin W. Hensolt, age 30 years, a member of the American Philatelic Society and at the time of his death, October 20th, president of the Pony Express Stamp Club of St. Joseph, Missouri, is sadly missed by his many friends in St. Joseph, where he has been among the most active of the local stamp collectors.

RAY SHEPARD, . . . 1529 DUXBERRY AVE., . . . COLUMBUS, OHIO

AUSTRIA—The annual Charity Stamps will be issued this month and will show portraits of well-known Austrian people. The values will be 12, 24, 30, 40, 60 and 64 groschen, and they will be sold at double face value. We are further informed that the high value stamps in the large pictorial issue 3, 5 and 10 schilling, will appear at the end of the year.

(Whitfield, King & Co.)

CEYLON—Another value in the set announced in our notes of August 17th. Pictorial view of Adam's Peak, King's head in medallion at right top corner. Transverse format, perf. 13x11½, script wmkd. Sheets of 60 (10 rows of 6), line engraved:

3c. olive green and black

(R. Roberts)

DANZIG—We have received two new values in the permanent set of postage stamps, 70 and 80 pfennig. We are also informed that new Air Mail stamps are to be issued shortly, 10, 15, 25, 50 pfennig and 1 gulden.

(Whitfield, King & Co.)

EGYPT—Official Stamp. Small format, wmkd. crown and crescent, perf. 13x13½, sheets of 100 (10x10); offset litho. printing:

02—20m. blue

L. 30.00

(R. Roberts)

GERMANY—New Charity Series. Wmkd. swastika; perf. 14x13½. Rectangle format, numerals of value in each upper corner. Each stamp portrays a woman of the various sections of Germany, in most cases, in festive dress:

3pf. plus	2pf. brown
4pf. "	3pf. gray blue
5pf. "	3pf. emerald
6pf. "	4pf. green
8pf. "	4pf. orange-brown
12pf. "	6pf. red
15pf. "	10pf. reddish brown
25pf. "	15pf. ultramarine
30pf. "	20pf. olive
40pf. "	35pf. claret

(L. W. McDaniel)

Mr. Nick Augustin informs us that the above set was placed on sale October 4th. He also says that at the same time two Charity Postal Cards were announced, one of them carries the design of the 6pf. stamps in the above set (plus the 4pf.) and the other is a girl with long braided tresses and of the same value—6pf. plus 4pf. All stamps were designed by the painter Karl Diebitsch of Munich. He also calls our attention to the fact that this year's set has two more values than last—15 and 30pf.

GERMANY—Mr. Nick Augustin informs us that most of the "Ostropa" sheets were sent to the Exposition AFT-ER the close of the same. Therefore the orders that were filled AFTER the close of the exposition DID NOT receive the official cancellation. The ones with the cancellation are reported to be about ten times higher in price.

In the recently issued Musician's set, chronicled July 27th, is a very scarce MAJOR error, according to Mr. Augustin. On the 25pf., the date "1585" appears in place of "1685." He is not certain if it occurs on the 12pf. or not. We almost neglected to mention that the 16th stamp in each sheet carries this error.

GREAT BRITAIN—Offices in Morocco. Another variety has been discovered on the Jubilee stamps, French currency, 5c. on ½p., which shows the numeral "5" almost missing. This occurs on the 29th stamp on the sheet—fifth stamp in the fifth row.

(Whitfield, King & Co.)

HUNGARY—Mr. G. Deiszinger tells us that we were a trifle in error in our notes of August 24th, under Czechoslovakia, in which we mentioned about the overprint "Justice for Hungary." He says that these words appear in French on the wings of the aeroplane, as part of the design. The plane was a gift to Hungary and had the inscription painted upon it.

INDIA—Bijawar. A newcomer in philately. The first issue for this State. Roughly surface-printed in sheets of 6 (3x2), perf. 11. Portrait of the ruler, probably, in an oval, above which in white on a colored tablet are the words "BIJAWAR STATE." At each side are

A wealthy young man from Minnesota, went out and bought himself a new motor. He traveled all around, 'till at last he had found, a sheet of Norses in the town of Albotor.

In a show here there is an educated horse that answers to the name of STAMP. There is also a man by the name of John Stamp who has been endorsed by the Citizens Union as a candidate for Alderman.

If one were to throw a ball in the Nassau Street section of New York one would hit a dealer, for more have started than you could shake a stick at. The more there are the better variety for the collector.

And now over the Pacific with the merry new 25 cent U. S. airmail just authorized in Washington. The 50 cent Zeppelin airmail is very good today and getting better all the time, and some of the airmails we looked at with disdain not so long ago are sought after, the 8c green being one we have in mind, among others.

She was very thin and very energetic and never had any flesh on her bones. She had a friend who was pleasingly plump. She envied her and asked one day how she filled out her clothes so well. Her friend answered that she was a stamp collector and sat around arranging her stamps instead of gallivanting around the town too much at a rapid pace. A lady collector mentions this to us and we are passing this on for what it is worth.

What are collectors doing with their collections. Discussions among dealers here show there is a lack of them for sale in the market and at this season. In former years estates would sell them, collectors would get tired of them and dispose of them. Perhaps now that philately is so popular fathers hand them down to sons and daughters, from brothers to brothers etc.

Do you lack a stamp and have been hunting it for years whether a cheap one or a more expensive stamp? There are people here that can pick up about 80% of all regular stamps listed in the standard catalog. To those out of town a letter to your regular dealer might be of great benefit to you. If he could not get it, he would know someone who could.

The Chicago Counterfeit of 1895

by Elmer Stuart.

On March 29th, 1895 there appeared an advertisement in the Chicago Tribune from the Canadian Novelty Co. of Hamilton, Ontario, offering unused 2 cent stamps of the current issue in $100.00 lots at a large discount from face value.

Several Chicago stamp dealers sent for these stamps. Archie L. Doherty, a dealer of the time, who was located in the old Masonic Temple, was one who received a lot. They arrived by Wells Fargo & Co. Express, being sent C. O. D. Dr. B. A. Cottlow (who in 1896 became Secretary of the Chicago Philatelic Society) happened to be present in Doherty's office when the stamps arrived, and when Mr. Doherty opened the package for examination, Dr. Cottlow looked at them and remarked that they looked strange and that he believed they were counterfeits. Mr. Doherty refused the shipment and at once notified Captain Porter, head of the U. S. Secret Service in Chicago at the time, who seized the shipment and another that had been delivered.

Extradition warrants were sworn out against the three persons involved, and they were all brought to this country for trial. The leader was Warren T. Thompson, another was Miss Laura McMillen, and the third, whose name could not be learned, turned States' evidence. Thompson was tried and convicted and sentenced to Leavenworth. Miss McMillen received 18 months in Auburn prison. The one who turned States' evidence was released.

At that time not much interest was shown in these counterfeits by collectors; however, some copies were obtained by them. Dr. Cottlow received three copies from the Hon. Washington Hising, then Post Master of Chicago.

F. J. Lefevor (another prominent member of the C. P. S. at the time) assisted the government in prosecuting the defendants, and there was an amusing incident told relating to him. It is said that he asked one of the officials for a sheet of the stamps and was told that it was against the law to give them out. However, the next morning, he received a sheet of the counterfeits through the mail, with no mention from whom they came.

These stamps were printed by photo lithography from two dies.

Die 1—Dull, rather rough work and dark color, photo litho on stone in sheets of 25 (5x5)

Die 2—Better appearance and clearer printed than Die 1, in blocks of 10 (5x2) horizontally. Also strips of 5 horizontally on a large sheet of gummed paper about 3x6 imperforate (being unfinished).

These stamps also exist on the original cover, having passed thru the U. S. Mails without discovery.

Cachet Promoter Sues Catalina Island Company

Jimmie Crum, stamp dealer of Santa Monica, Calif., has filed suit for $950.00 against the Wilmington Transportation Co. The Company which operates boats between Santa Monica and Catalina agreed to sponsor a cachet on the occasion of the first run of the "Cabrillo" to Catalina. Crum advertised the event and went to considerable expense in selling cachet covers and the Catalina crowd are alleged to have failed to keep their bargain and supply the cachet. Crum thus claims heavy loss of cash besides loss of face with his customers and asks damages in the amount of $950.00.

Attractive New Lists

Spencer Anderson of New York is one of our newest Contract Advertising Patrons and since Mr. Anderson is one of the leading New York Dealers we are glad to recommend him to our readers. His new 1936 price list of U. S. and British North America of over 75 pages is just at hand and is a list worth while.

The Elbe File and Binder Company are making a big bid for Holiday Trade with a handsome and attractive new circular on their line of albums and accessories. Dealers who have not seen their goods should look up their advertising which appears frequently in our columns and get a list of the products.

Silver Jubilees Slump

After a fast climb, prices on the Silver Jubilee Stamps of King George have begun to slip off a bit and this is no doubt due to rumors of reprints or to probable reprinting of some of the issues. Current wholesale quotations however do not justify some of the high prices that were being asked by dealers hoping for a handsome profit. Current prices are more reasonable.
